ROBERT J. BOYD was born in Chester District, South Carolina, Nov. 24th, 1805, and died at the District Parsonage, in Marion, South Carolina, September 3d, 1869, being nearly sixty-four years old.

Our departed brother was religiously trained from childhood, and the care thus bestowed resulted in his early awakening and conversion to God. That awakening was thorough, and his purpose to serve God became at once a settled one. After mature deliberation, he connected himself with the Methodist Church, influenced to this step by a firm conviction of the truth of her doctrines and the excellency of her government. His conversion to God was not realized till some time afterwards; when, as he was returning home from a camp-meeting, deeply anxious about his condition, he obtained the blessing of pardon; and from that day till his death enjoyed the unquestioned assurance of his acceptance with God.

Soon after this event, he felt it his duty to become a Methodist itinerant preacher. Circumstances rendered this impossible at that time, and having graduated in medicine, he gave himself to its practice, at the same time working zealously as a local preacher. He was licensed January 4th, 1830, by the Quarterly Conference of Orangeburg Circuit—William Capers Presiding Elder.

The 17th of June, 1830, he married Miss Rachel Pooser, of Orangeburg District, who still lives to cherish the memory of her departed companion. The Church, and especially we, his brethren and sons in the gospel, will remember her in our prayers to the Judge of the widow.

Success in his profession soon rendered Brother Boyd independent, and he at once responded to the call of duty, entering the missionary work adjacent to Walterboro, South Carolina; the sainted Capers then being Superintendent of Missions in this Conference.

He was ordained Deacon, February 19th, 1834, by Bishop Emory, and Elder, February 14th, 1836, by Bishop Andrew.

He was removed, in 1839, from the mission work, and sent to Marion Circuit. In 1840 and 1841, he traveled the Black Swamp Circuit; in 1842, the Cokesbury Circuit; the next four years he was on the Charleston District. In 1847 and 1848, he traveled the Orangeburg Circuit; in 1849, the Barnwell Circuit; in 1850 and 1851, the Union Circuit; in 1852 and 1853, the Cokesbury Circuit; in 1854, the Laurens Circuit; the next four years he was on the Cokesbury District. In 1859, he was stationed in Camden; in 1860, in Georgetown; the next four years he was on the Columbia District. In 1865 and 1866, he was stationed at Marion, South Carolina. He was appointed to the Marion District at the Conference which met December, 1866, and closed his long life of active service in the discharge of his duties as Presiding Elder, ceasing at once to work and live.

During the spring of 1869, it became evident that the Doctor's strength was failing. He persisted in his work, notwithstanding the opposition of his friends and family, expressing himself desirous of dying in the work. He met his appointments as long as he could ride, and then, after a few weeks of intense suffering, passed away in a moment to his reward.

In the death of Dr. Boyd, we have lost one of our best and wisest men. He held at different times many positions of honor or trust in the gift of his Conference. In every position he bore himself with that simplicity and dignity which most adorn the Christian character. Whether as a Missionary to the negroes, or Pastor, or Presiding Elder, or Delegate to the General Conference, he always met the responsibilities of the occasion calmly and courageously, and always proved himself equal to his work.

His humility was a prominent feature in his character, and this shone all the more brightly from his elevated position among his brethren. So humble was he that you were forced to believe that he himself was ignorant of the weight of his influence and the great force of his well-poised intellect. In this grace he was as a little child.

In every virtue that goes to make up manly character, in every grace that adorns the Christian, in all that constitutes the valued friend and the safe counselor, Dr. Boyd excelled. We have few who were his peers. A good and great man has fallen. Our loss is great; but this great loss to us is to him infinite gain.

"Servant of God, well-done!
Rest from thy loved employ;
The battle fought, the victory won,
Enter thy Master's joy."

WHATCOAT ASBURY GAMEWELL, for thirty-six years an effective member of this body, an eminently holy and useful minister of the Gospel, finished his course October 30, 1869, in Spartanburg, S. C. He was the son of Rev. John Gamewell, (a member of this Conference, who died in 1827,) and was born in Darlington District, S. C., May 6, 1814. As the chief support of a widowed mother, with five younger children, his educational advantages were necessarily limited; but he acquired, mainly by self-culture, a degree of elementary scholarship sufficient to enable him to meet the demands of the positions of responsibility and influence to which, in after life, his superior merits as a Christian minister elevated him. He joined the M. E. Church under the ministry of Josiah Freeman, November 27th, 1831, and professed justifying faith July 11th, 1832. His license to preach bears date November 23d, 1833; and at the following session of this Conference, held in Charleston, February, 1834, he was admitted on trial. His appointments were as follows: 1834, Rutherford Circuit; 1835-36, Charleston—being ordained Deacon February 14th of the latter year by Bishop Andrew; 1837-39, Wateree Mission—being ordained Elder January 14th, 1838, by Bishop Morris; 1840-41, Wilmington Station; 1842, Lincolnton Circuit; 1843-46, Lincolnton District; 1847-50, Cokesbury District; 1851, Charleston; 1852-53, Union Circuit; 1854, Spartanburg Station; 1855-56, Washington Street, Columbia; 1857, Camden; 1858-60, Columbia District; 1861-62, Washington Street, Columbia; 1863, Marion District; 1864-66, Darlington Station; 1867-69, Spartanburg Station. He had thus occupied the various fields of itinerant work as missionary, circuit and station preacher, and presiding elder. He was also four times elected as delegate to the General Conference—only the last time being prevented, by ill health, from attending. No member of this body enjoyed to a greater extent the confidence and love of his clerical brethren; and the hold which he had on the affections of the people was unsurpassed and remarkable. The young and the old, the cultivated and illiterate, members of every Christian denomination and those who belonged to none, were all, with singular unanimity, his friends and admirers. Nor was this uncommon popularity the result of any cause which in the least degree diminishes its value as a tribute to ministerial fidelity and superior moral worth. The elements of his attractive power were not such as are within the reach of mere intellect, learning, or oratory; neither did he hesitate to "reprove, rebuke and exhort," both in the pulpit and in personal interview; and although very modest, and accustomed to take the humblest views of his own abilities and labors, he was conscientiously courageous and faithful in the discharge of duty, however painful might be its performance. In the pulpit, he always impressed the congregation with a sense of his profound earnestness. He was free from all offensive peculiarities in his manner, diction and teaching, in the pulpit and out of it. With due regard to the received standards of doctrine, and to the most approved exegesis of his text, his preaching was chiefly in a hortatory and persuasive style, enforcing the great truths of Christianity with such obvious sincerity, and with such evident soul-moving interest in the spiritual welfare of those whom he addressed, as never failed to produce effect. He was eminently distinguished as a pastor—being unusually industrious, faithful, prudent and successful in the discharge of his duties in this department of his ministerial labors. His character was one of unusual beauty, symmetry and completeness. Few men have, to the extent of their gifts, so satisfactorily and successfully met all the claims upon them, both from the church and society. His last days were in harmony with his previous life; and although by no means insensible to the solemnities of the final hour, he was, nevertheless, peacefully resigned to the will of God. His dying utterances were, like his useful and holy life had been, in attestation of the power of the grace of Christ, and he passed away with glorious assurance that over the "last enemy" his victory was triumphantly complete.

QUES. XV.—Are all the preachers blameless in their life and official administration?

ANS.—Their names were severally called before the Conference, and their characters passed.

REPORT ON EDUCATION.

The Committee on Education present the following report of the condition and prospects of the several institutions of learning under the patronage of the South Carolina Conference, founded on the different papers referred to them for consideration:

WOFFORD COLLEGE, SPARTANBURG C. H., SO. CA.

The first session of the sixteenth collegiate year commenced in this institution on Monday, 4th October last, with a patronage of one hundred and five students in the College and Preparatory Schools. The number in attendance during the preceding session, beginning on Monday, 4th January last, was one hundred and twenty. The patronage of the College for the current scholastic year would have been, without doubt, largely in excess of all former years, had not the excessive drought of the summer cut short the crops of the State, with the success or failure of which the numbers in attendance at the institution must of necessity fluctuate. The literary and religious condition of the College was never sounder than at present. The absolute punctuality of so large a number in attendance upon all scholastic duties and the amount of application to studies on the part of the students generally are highly gratifying to the Committee, and they record with pleasure the uniform good order and correct moral deportment which continue to characterize the young men of the College. It is a gratification, which they can find no language to express, to be able to say, without exaggeration, what a growing attention from year to year has been given to the noblest purposes for which colleges are founded, and how the young men who frequent the halls of Wofford have advanced in respect for religion and in earnest attention to its duties. Here not only is the fire of genius cherished and the lamp of philosophy trimmed, but here also burns brightly the candle which God has lighted for a benighted world. About three-fourths of the students are members of the Church, and evince a solid piety by a punctual attendance upon the ordinances of God's house and a diligent use of all the means of grace. In addition to the seven promising young men who are pursuing a course of studies with an immediate view to the work of the itinerant ministry, the minds of a number more, it is believed, are turned to the holy office. The Committee would not withhold from the Conference, as a specimen of the letters which from time to time are sent to the Faculty and serve to cheer them in their arduous and responsible labors, the following brief extract of one from a patron of the College, dated 8th March, 1869, and immediate subsequent to the gracious revival with which the institution this year was again favored: "We feel rich in our poverty; and would not exchange the conversion of our son (13th February) for all the wealth of the Indies. It was to secure this very end that we left the home of our ancestors and have lived in exile among strangers. We felt persuaded that if we could obtain the means of sending him to Wofford, God would convert him. Our self-denial for his good seemed full of folly to some, but this happy result has proven the wisdom of the act. We bless God that he has put it into the hearts of good men to build up and sustain such a college as Wofford, to which we can send our sons with almost a certainty that they will be converted. In other educational advantages, we know that she ranks among the first institutions of the land, but her chief glory consists in her wonderful success in initiating our sons into the highest science—the consciousness of God reconciled in the soul, and in the training of their spirits for heaven."

The Committee call the earnest attention of the Conference to the present financial condition of the College. The tuition fees of the current year will amount to about $3,000. The average amount contributed by the Conference from year to year for the relief of the institution has been about $1,500—less than four cents per year for each white member of the Church within the Conference. For the support of five Professors, with large families, $4,500 are wholly inadequate. The Committee recommend for the relief of the College for the ensuing year an appropriation of $8,000, to be raised by the several Presiding Elders' Districts on the plan recommended in the report of last year, of which $6,000 shall go for the support of the Faculty, and $2,000, should so much additional be raised, shall go for improving the College Campus, repairing the buildings, and for such other purposes as may be determined by the Executive Committee of the Trustees. In furtherance of the collection to be raised for the College, the Committee call particular attention to the appeal of the President of the institution, bearing date of 14th January, 1869:

To the Preachers and Members of the M. E. Church, South, within the bounds of the South Carolina Conference.

DEAR BRETHREN: The collection for Education ordered by the Conference at Marion, (1866,) and continued at its session at Morganton, (1867,) and Abbeville C. H., (1868,) introduces nothing new in Methodism, but is in accurate conformity with plans adopted by Mr. Wesley himself, and sanctioned by the Church both in England and America.

At the thirteenth Conference, which convened in Bristol, August 26th, 1756, a whole day (Saturday, 28th,) was devoted to the subject of education, as involved in Kingswood School, and resulted in the adoption of the following resolutions, viz:

"1. That a short account of the design and present state of the school be read by every assistant in every society.

"2. That a subscription for it begun in every place, and (if need be) a collection made every year."

Accordingly, Mr. Wesley prepared "a short account" to encourage the people to contribute, "and made special sermons in aid of the collections." "From this time," says Mr. Myles, whose Chronological History of the Methodists is brought down to 1812, "a public collection has been made through all the societies once in every year for Kingswood School."

At the General Conference held in Baltimore, (1840,) a very able report on Education, written by Dr. Few, of Georgia, and read to the Conference by Rev. S. K. Hodges, closes as follows, viz:

"Your Committee, in view of the vast importance of this great trust (education) committed to the church for the purpose of making a permanent provision for sustaining our literary institutions, recommend the adoption of the following resolution, viz:

"Resolved, That any Annual Conference may direct public collections to be taken up by the preachers in charge of circuits and stations in each society, one in each year, for the purpose of sustaining the literary institutions under its control or patronage, if it should judge it expedient so to do, or may adopt such other measures for that end as may seem to the members thereof most advisable."

May we not, then, confidently say to you all, in behalf of the collection ordered for the relief of Wofford College, what Mr. Wesley said in the interests of the Kingswood School: "The expense of such an undertaking is very large, so that we are ill able to defray it. The best means we could think of at our Conference to supply the deficiency is, once a year, to desire the assistance of all those in every place who wish well to the work of God; who long to see sinners converted to God, and the kingdom of Christ set up in all the earth. All of you, who are thus minded, have an opportunity now of showing your love for the Gospel. Now promote, as far as in you lies, one of the noblest charities in the world. Now forward, as you are able, one of the most excellent designs that ever was set on foot in this (State) kingdom. You will be no poorer for what you do on such an occasion. God is a good paymaster. And you know in doing this you lend unto the Lord. In due time He shall pay you again."

Very respectfully,

A. M. Shipp, President.

The Committee also call special attention to the following resolutions adopted by the Board of Trustees, viz:

"Resolved, That as a Board we are more than ever convinced of the necessity of sustaining Wofford College, and earnestly urge each member of the Conference to increased efforts in raising the appropriations for this object, by calling the attention of the people to the intimate connection subsisting between the success of the institution and the prosperity of the Church.

"Resolved, That as a Board of Trustees we cordially approve the action of its several District Meetings in relation to the education of a young man from each district for the ministry, and earnestly recommend prompt measures in raising the amount necessary to meet their board bills--their tuition fees being remitted by the Faculty."

The next session of the College and the Schools will begin on the first Monday in January, 1870.

DAVENPORT FEMALE COLLEGE.

The Davenport Female College, at Lenoir, N. C., has just closed a year of remarkable prosperity, both financial and spiritual. Its boarding department has been filled to its utmost capacity, and every pupil of the College, save only two, has been soundly converted to God. The signal spiritual prosperity of the institution during the past year calls for devout thanksgiving to Almighty God, and the Committee freely recommend the College to the confidence and support of such of our people as desire to secure for their daughters a thorough Christian education.

The Board of Trustees, encouraged by the success of the current year, propose to enlarge the College building at an early day: in relation to which the Committee advise prudent caution to be observed; and with this qualification, recommend a cordial welcome to be extended to the President in such charges of our Conference as he may deem it advisable to visit.

TRUSTEES.—Jas. C. Harper, President; S. P. Dula, Secretary; E. W. Jones, Treasurer; Presiding Elder of Shelby District, ex-officio, Preacher in Charge of Lenoir Circuit, P. F. Kistler, S. Lander, John Rutherford, Jas. C. Claywell, Azer Shell, Preachers in Charge of Marion Station, Morganton Circuit and Newton Circuit.

SPARTANBURG FEMALE COLLEGE.

This property formerly belonged to the South Carolina Conference, and was held in trust by a Board appointed by your body. It was, however, involved in debt to a considerable amount, and two years ago, under the operation of the Bankrupt Act, was sold out by the Trustees and purchased by certain of the creditors.

Learning that negotiations were in progress by which the property was about to pass out of our hands and control forever, at the suggestion of certain brethren and after consultation with others, the Rev. S. B. Jones and Rev. Jas. F. Smith purchased the property, with the pledge that they would refit, repair and open the College at an early day.

These gentlemen request the Conference to make the Spartanburg Female College, as it formerly was, a Conference institution; they offering to the Conference the same moral control and the same privileges as to the daughters of its ministers formerly enjoyed; while at the same time we are entirely relieved of all pecuniary responsibility.

The buildings are now undergoing repairs, and the College will be opened for the reception of pupils on the 1st day of February next.

The Committee recommend to the Conference to accept the Spartanburg Female College, on the terms proposed, as a Conference institution, worthy the patronage of our people; and also that the Bishop be requested to appoint the Rev. S. B. Jones President of the institution.

VISITING COMMITTEE.—J. R. Griffith, A. J. Stokes and V. A. Sharpe.

CAROLINA FEMALE COLLEGE.

There is no information before the Committee from the Trustees of this institution, and we regret to learn, indirectly, that its condition is not so prosperous as formerly, and that its indebtedness still remains. Such is the financial condition of the country, that we can suggest no means of relief, however deeply we sympathize with the Trustees and friends of the College.

COKEBURY SCHOOL.

In 1833, the South Carolina Conference resolved to open a Preparatory School for colleges, and appointed the five Presiding Elders to receive propositions and select a suitable location. This movement resulted in the establishment of the Cokesbury School, which has had a long and honorable career in our Conference. The Committee, therefore, cannot at present view with favor the proposition to change the character and relations of this institution, but advise that patient and earnest efforts may be made for another year on the part of the Trustees and citizens of Cokesbury and surrounding country, to restore prosperity to this venerable school, that it may ever remain a cherished memento of the early efforts of the fathers of this Conference to advance the cause of Christian education.

TRUSTEES.—F. A. Connor, Jas. F. Smith, G. W. Hodges, F. F. Gary, S. Leard, S. B. Jones, W. H. Lawton, W. H. Fleming and J. T. Kilgo.

In conclusion, the Committee recommend for adoption by the Conference the following resolutions, viz:

1. That the Presiding Bishop be respectfully requested to appoint to our institutions of learning such members of the Conference as have been elected to fill chairs of instruction.

2. That as a body of Christian ministers and laymen, we are profoundly convinced of the importance of giving a religious education to the youth of our country, and we will use our best endeavors to promote the interests of all our institutions of learning, recommending them in our intercourse with the people, obtaining for them as many students as possible, and heartily co-operating in raising such funds as have been voted by the Conference.

THE COLUMBIA FEMALE COLLEGE.

The Committee on the Columbia Female College beg leave to state, that having carefully examined the condition of the College, think an elaborate report unnecessary, and present the following preamble and resolutions:

Whereas the Columbia Female College is in debt, according to the report of its Trustees, which report is presented with this paper, to the amount of fifteen thousand and seven hundred dollars (15,700,) including the interest on the bonded debt of the College, with all other liabilities; and

Whereas a large portion of this bonded debt is due to some of the said Trustees, which creates the anomalous condition of a party necessitated to negotiate a debt with itself; and

Whereas it is believed that it is indispensable to the interests of Methodism and religious education in the State, that this institution be opened at an early date; and

Whereas it is essential to the speedy re-opening of the College, that the debts be liquidated: Therefore

Resolved, 1. That it is the judgment of this body that the said Board be re-organized, to the end that the financial affairs of the College may be adjusted at an early day.

Resolved, 2. That in view of the general financial depression which prevails throughout our Conference territory, that the Board of Trustees elect, be authorized to settle the claims against the College on the most favorable terms practicable.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES.—J. W. Kelly, F. M. Kennedy, A. B. Stephens, W. C. Power, S. Leard, A. J. Cauthen, O. A. Darby, E. J. Meynardie, D. J. Simmons, M. Brown, T. S. Daniel, J. H. Zimmerman, R. Bryce, Geo. W. Williams, R. D. Senn, W. Glaze, J. H. Stelling, Joseph Lauhon, A. A. Gilbert, W. L. J. Reid, E. T. Rembert, J. H. Kinsler, Robert Moorman, H. T. Wright.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Ability to report the interests of the Sunday School cause manifestly on the increase, is matter of rejoicing. The Board cannot express too strongly its sense of the importance of surrounding the children of the Church with an atmosphere of piety. Let every Church have its Sunday School, and let every pastor do his utmost to bring all the children to Christ.

The Treasurer of the Board reports the sum of $870.13 collected by Rev. S. Leard, Agent. This amount has been appropriated to the Agent as his salary.

While the Board fully appreciate the zeal and devotion of the Agent during the year, it nevertheless respectfully recommends the discontinuance of the Agency.

MISSIONS.

Extract from the Report of the Missionary Board, 1869.

Our Conference devotes most of the funds collected from the churches to support missions, within our own territory. Destitute places in South and North Carolina have the Gospel preached by missionaries supported from our treasury—if an average salary of $200 can be called a support.

It is a noble work to preach Jesus to the poor of our own land; but are we doing all that we ought to do? Think of it! Five cents a week from each of the 40,000 members of our Church in this Conference would furnish for missionary purposes the sum of $104,000. Less than $3,000 was contributed last year. Truly these figures reveal a deplorable indifference to the farewell command of the ascending Master: "Go ye into all the world." The truth is, the large majority of our people give nothing to missions. To educate their congregations on this subject is perhaps the most important work our ministry have to perform. Let every Church—let every Sunday School—be organized into an auxiliary Missionary Society, and the gifts of the members will not only support a number of domestic missions, but erect in some heathen land a permanent light-house to disperse the darkness and reveal the Saviour. Why may not the South Carolina Conference support its own foreign missionary station? Imagine the great High Priest in our midst to-night, wearing sacred scars on his brow, and hands, and feet, and side. Would not his wounds plead with irresistible power for the heathen? Imagine him speaking to us. What word more likely to fall from his lips than this: "Go ye into all the world?"

Great events are before us. Wonderful discoveries have prepared the way for wonderful work. Continents converse with continents, the depths of the sea being used as a whispering-gallery for nations. And now that the gates of the East are thrown open, and the heathen are bringing their household gods to our shores, what is the spiritual condition of Christendom? An imposing ritualism and a paralyzing worldliness in religion, a defiant materialism in philosophy, a shameless animalism in society, oppose the zeal and threaten the life of evangelical Christianity. Strange, indeed, does it appear, that while Protestant divines are embracing the doctrines and despotism of Rome, the greatest of the eloquent monks of Europe preaches "salvation in Jesus, by grace alone, through faith, known and realized in blessed peace and power." The Lord reigns. Jesus walks over the angry billows. The tempests shall work out His will. Let us watch and pray, work and wait.

The following exhibits the state of the Missionary work in our Conference territory:

Aiken and Graniteville Mission was served by Rev. Augustine

W. Walker, who reports, white members 150, colored members 3; infants baptized 3; Sunday Schools 2, officers and teachers 20, scholars 150; volumes in library 550; periodicals 65; amount for Missions, $160. 2 churches and one parsonage.

Hardeeville Mission was served by Rev. J. R. Coburn, and was continued. White members 25, colored members 39; infants baptized 2, colored adult baptized 1; Sunday Schools 1, officers and teachers 6, scholars—whites 12, colored 17; churches 4; money for Missions $16.15, for Sunday Schools $17.25.

Saluda River Mission was but partially served this year. There are 75 white members, 20 colored members; 70 S. S. scholars, 7 officers and teachers; 40 members admitted this year; prospects improving. Continued.

MISSIONARY DEBT.

The Committee to whom was referred the communication of the Rev. Dr. Munsey, Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions of the M. E. Church, South, respectfully report:

That as far as they have been able to learn, in the absence of documents which are not at hand, the portion of the Missionary debt due by this Conference is about three thousand dollars. The Committee recommend:

1. That the amount of three hundred and eleven dollars now in the hands of the Treasurer of the Missionary Society of this Conference for Foreign Missions, be appropriated to this debt.

2. That it be made the duty of the Presiding Elders to divide the above mentioned sum of three thousand dollars among their respective Districts, and that each Presiding Elder shall divide the amount apportioned to his District among the several charges of his District, and that the preachers to whom these amounts shall be assessed shall collect the amounts so appropriated during the months of January and February next, and pay over the amounts collected to their respective Presiding Elders, who shall forward the same to T. J. Magruder, Esq., No. 1 Hanover street, Baltimore, Md., Treasurer of the Board of Foreign Missions, M. E. Church, South.

In accordance with the above, the following is the distribution of that portion of the debt assigned to the South Carolina Conference:

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

Your Committee are profoundly thankful for the success with which the business of the Publishing House at Nashville is conducted. Dr. Redford, the untiring Agent, deserves, we think, the hearty co-operation of every preacher in this Conference. We recommend that the "sixty-dollar" proposition be taken in every case where it is at all practicable. We will thus contribute to the relief of our Publishing House, and at the same time give to our people reading matter of the right sort.

Your Committee recommend the establishment of an Agency for Books and Tracts within our bounds, if a suitable man can be found for the work.

The communication of Dr. J. E. Evans, with regard to publishing his Episcopal controversy, has been considered with favor, and we hereby recommend its publication, with a promise to aid in its circulation.

The Christian Advocate, under the able management of Dr. Summers, we heartily recommend to our preachers and people.

The Sunday School Visitor, also, we regard as a valuable help to our Sunday Schools, and respectfully suggest the importance of publishing it weekly.

With unfeigned satisfaction we have examined the report of J. W. Burke & Co., publishers of the Southern Christian Advocate, to this Conference. We are glad that their untiring and self-sacrificing labors are about to be rewarded by an appreciating public. The Church in the patronizing Conferences, in our judgment, is much indebted to this company for such an instrumentality for good; and we unite in expressing the hope that all difficulties with reference to its publication may soon be put to rest, and that coming to its help, all of us, we may increase its usefulness and make it a source of revenue to the Church. We consider it to be one of the best family papers, and hereby pledge ourselves to renewed efforts to increase its circulation.

Your Committee hope that Dr. Redford may soon find it in his power to publish a Quarterly Review for our Church.

SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

The Special Committee to whom were referred the interests of the Southern Christian Advocate, embracing its proposed return to Charleston, S. C., its original place of publication, having given to the subject such earnest and deliberate consideration as they could, recommend for adoption by the Conference the following resolution, viz:

Resolved, That the whole subject of the Southern Christian Advocate be referred to the delegation of the South Carolina Conference in the approaching General Conference, acting in concert with the delegations of the North Georgia, South Georgia and Florida Conferences, and of any other patronizing Conference or Conferences.

Resolved, That an authenticated copy of this report be furnished to the Chairman of the delegation of the South Carolina Conference.

FINANCIAL PLAN.

The Committee charged with the revision of the Financial Plan of the Conference have given the whole subject mature deliberation, feeling profoundly impressed with a sense of its vital, if not paramount, importance to the sacred and immortal interests of the Church, for the time to come.

With impressions such as these, entertained, it is hoped, in the fear of God, changes have been made to accommodate the Plan, as far as possible, to the conflicting opinions which are found to exist in the body of the Conference. And these changes have been made in a spirit of Christian conciliation, with the fact abundantly demonstrated, by the practical results, as embodied in the returns of collections from about one-fourth of the charges, of the entire practicability, we might say the easy practicability, of the Plan. In some of the charges it has been executed to the letter—every claim having been fully met with comparative ease, and greatly to the relief and satisfaction of the stewardship and all members of the Church who feel an interest in the matter.

These changes, then, having been thus made, and your Committee being also impressed with a conception of the difficulty which is found in bringing any plan into general and harmonious operation, and feeling, at the same time, that this is essentially necessary to success, urgently and affectionately entreat amity of sentiment and concurrence of action upon the Plan which shall be herewith agreed upon.

PLAN OF OPERATIONS.

1. That as soon as the preacher arrives, it shall be the duty of the respective Boards of Stewards to meet and determine the whole amount to be raised for the support of the Church for the Conference year—the Conference collections excepted. That at the first Church Meeting, or convenient time thereafter, this matter shall be brought by the Stewards or Steward (whether station or circuit) before the membership, and provision made for raising the amount required, either by assessments upon all the members of the Church, previously agreed upon by the Board, and reported and assented to at this first meeting, or by the assumption of entirely voluntary obligations on the part of the members, in response to the call of the Stewards, to the full amount needed.

2. That, on the stations, collections be made by the Stewards monthly. That these collections be reported to a monthly meeting of the Stewards, which meeting shall aggregate and order the disbursement, through the Secretary and Treasurer of the Board, to the Pastor, Presiding Elder, &c.; the financial result of each month's operations to be reported (the amount each member has paid being read out) to the Monthly Church Meetings.

3. That, on the circuits, collections shall be made by the Stewards quarterly, the assessments or voluntary obligations having been made or taken to be thus paid, whether in provisions or money. That these collections shall be reported to quarterly meetings of the Boards of Stewards, which meetings shall aggregate and disburse as provided for in Section 2, in regard to stations, and in like manner report the result to quarterly meetings of the members of each church.

4. That in order to further the interests of collections for the support of the Preachers, Presiding Elders, &c., it shall be the duty of the Stewards to bring the matter, if necessary, constantly before the membership, on all suitable occasions, both individually and in congregation assembled; and that the performance of this solemn and sacred duty is most earnestly and affectionately enjoined, its observance to be regarded a test of proper qualifications for the Stewardship.

5. That the collections ordered by the Conference be divided and presented to the church, in congregation assembled or otherwise: So much for the superannuated preachers and the widows and orphans of preachers; so much for the Bishops, so much for Educational purposes, and so much for Missions; and that these claims be presented by the Preachers, assisted and supported by the Stewards, beginning early in the year, and continued from time to time, if necessary, until the full amount called for shall have been realized.

6. That the aggregate collections ordered by the Conference be put down at $26,000, to be apportioned as follows: For Bishops, $1,500; Superannuated Preachers, &c., $9,500; for Education, $8,000; and for Missions, $8,000.

7. That the whole amount ($26,000) be apportioned among the several Presiding Elders' Districts of the Conference, according to their respective ability, by the Joint Board of Finance; and the amount so apportioned to each District shall be distributed for collection among the several charges thereof by the Presiding Elder.

8. That the Presiding Elder, having thus divided and apportioned, present these several claims at the first Quarterly Conference, with the urgent injunction that they be not neglected, and that the full amount is expected.

EPISCOPAL DECISION.

Being called upon by the report of a Committee appointed to investigate a charge of mal-administration against the Rev. W. H. Fleming, of the South Carolina Conference, in conducting an investigation of complaints at one time and of charges at another, I shall notice the points as to the legality of the proceedings that are made in the above report:

1. A Quarterly Conference has the right to discontinue the name of one of its members from the roll who has removed to a distant point from his circuit or station with the apparent intention of remaining there, having taken no letter in the removal; but cannot inflict pains and penalties upon him without due notification of charges and a regular trial. The "revoking of the credentials" of an absent local preacher without trial is, therefore, illegal.

2. In the case embodied in the report of the Committee, after regular charges were presented, the process of trial was according to the requirements of law.

(Signed,)

H. H. KAVANAUGH.
